A Year of Photos of Chichester Harbour Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty

From the 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2013 we are aiming to collect a photo every-day of Chichester Harbour Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). At the end of the twelve months we will have a fine photographic record of the AONB, covering all aspects of the landscape, wildlife, recreation and more.

To take part, simply take a photo of any aspect of the AONB. It can be on the land, on the water, boats, farmland, habitats, buildings, wildlife, people or even life under the water, anything that you think represents Chichester Harbour.

Submit your photos by email to allie@conservancy.co.uk. Up to three photos for each day will be displayed on www.conservancy.co.uk. Don't worry if you can't submit it the day it was taken, just send it in anytime before the 30 April 2013 and we will add it into the project. When submitting your photo, include your details, where and when it was taken and a short caption of why the photo is special to you.

Keep checking back on www.conservancy.co.uk to see how we are doing and enjoy seeing the year of photos as it grows day by day.
