

Useful Information

Directions

All the walks were tested in 2007. However, please note that some footpaths may be diverted and buildings such as pubs may have changed their name since the walks were written. If you have any comments please send them to the Harbour Office to be considered for the next edition.

Distances and Timings

All distances and timings are approximate.

Maps

The maps provided are a guide and are not to scale. Please use OS Explorer Map 120 (Chichester).

- Be safe - plan ahead and follow any signs

Even when going out locally, it's best to get the latest information about where and when you go; for example, your rights to go onto some areas of open land may be restricted while work is carried out, for safety reasons or during breeding seasons. Follow advice and local signs, and be prepared for the unexpected.

- Leave gates and property as you find them

Please respect the working life of the countryside, as our actions can affect people's livelihoods, our heritage, and the safety and welfare of animals and ourselves.

- Protect plants and animals and take your litter home

We have a responsibility to protect our countryside, so make sure you don't harm animals, birds, plants or trees.

- Keep dogs under control

The countryside is a great place to exercise dogs, but it's every owner's duty to make sure their dog is not a danger or nuisance to farm animals, wildlife or other people.

- Consider other people

Showing consideration and respect for other people makes the countryside a pleasant environment for everyone – at home, at work and at leisure.

Walk 3

Chichester Marina to Dell Quay

A 7.5km, figure-of-eight walk taking in one the largest marinas in the country and the tiny village of Dell Quay which was once a busy commercial port.

Start Point

Free visitors' car park at Chichester Marina, Birdham.

By Road

From the A27 take the A286 south of Chichester towards the Witterings. After about 2 miles turn right into Chichester Marina. The visitors' car park is the first one you come to on the right.

By Bus

Service 52 or 53 from Chichester to the Witterings. Ask for the Chichester Marina bus stop.

Refreshments

The Spinnaker Bar at Chichester Marina and The Crown and Anchor at Dell Quay.

Toilets

Near the entrance to Salterns Copse.

Tides

The paths are non-tidal.

Walk Directions

From the bus stop walk down the road towards the Marina where you will shortly find the visitors' car park on your right. From the end of the car park, turn right and pass the barriers with the marina on your left. ①

You will pass a large reed bed on your right and then a bird hide. Take a few moments to stop to visit the hide from which you may be able to spot Reed Buntings and Reed Warblers and hear Cetti's Warblers.

Continue down the road to the waterside. In the distance look out for the white roofs of the Goodwood Racecourse Grandstand.

When you reach the water, turn right into Salterns Copse and immediately take the left fork. (2) This path follows the shoreline and continues to the edge of the Copse.

The path then continues ahead along a field boundary. You will shortly be able to see the green roof and spire of Chichester Cathedral and the village of Dell Quay.

Continue along the path which eventually turns inland around a garden fence before reaching a road.

Here you can turn left to visit Dell Quay. Walk down the road where you will find The Crown and Anchor, a pub with wonderful harbour views. Past the pub you can walk onto the historic quay which at high tide is likely to be busy with sailing activity.

To continue the walk, return back up the road and past the entrance to the path from which you emerged. Turn right at a wide farm track signposted Apuldram Manor Farm. (3) You are now on a section of the Salterns Way cycle route so please watch out for cyclists.

Follow the farm track which passes between arable fields and then past a cow shed before bearing right to cross a field down to Salterns Copse.

Continue straight ahead alongside the Copse until you reach the entrance.

From here, walk ahead towards the Marina office (4) to cross the lock. If the lock is open you may have to wait a few minutes as boats use it, before the lock keeper closes it for you to cross.

Continue straight ahead towards the canal and then follow the road round to the left with the canal and houseboats on your right.

Make your way across the car park and pick up the path running alongside the Marina. This will take you through a small complex with The Spinnaker Bar, a small general store and a chandlery.

The path follows out of the complex and will lead you back to the visitors' car park, or continue on back up the road to the bus stop.

Extra Items of Interest

Salterns Copse

The copse is an eight acre woodland adjacent to the shoreline of Chichester Harbour on Apuldram Manor Farm. It is the largest ancient woodland remnant on the Manhood Peninsula and is of great ecological interest. The area is managed by coppicing. It is divided into ten sections which are coppiced in rotation. Trees such as hazel are cut back to the ground leaving the 'stool' to grow new stems sometimes as many as 30-50. Here at the Copse, these stems are used for conservation work.

Chichester Marina

The marina was opened in 1966 with eight pontoons. Further pontoons were added in 1968 and 1970. It can now berth 1071 boats and is the second largest marina in the country.

Chichester Canal

The canal runs from the city of Chichester down to the Harbour, ending at the lock gates by Chichester Yacht Club. It was opened in 1823 as part of a larger canal scheme to carry cargo between London and Portsmouth. Competition from the railways meant that the canal was never commercially viable and it fell into disuse by 1906.

Boats can no longer navigate the length of the canal as two roads cut across it. However West Sussex County Council hope to re-open the canal through to the sea by 2010. A footpath runs alongside the 4km canal and would make a nice extension of this walk into Chichester. To pick up the path, cross the A286 at the Marina entrance and you will see the canal path opposite you.
